

All the World's a Tabletop

The Wayne County Arts Center is excited to be hosting All the World's a Tabletop. The event is a showcase & competition centered around the unique art of tabletop crafting associated with role-playing games, war-gaming, and model railways. Our goal is to gather those who currently craft, want to craft, or have an interest in terrain crafting. We also hope to introduce the art to others who may be unfamiliar with this type of crafting.
